OFFICE OF PETITIONS

Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D. C. 20231SUPPLEMENTAL ARGUMENT TO:*PETITION TO WITHDRAW HOLDING OF ABANDONMENT OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE TO REVIVE FOR UNAVOIDABLE DELAY OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE TO REVIVE FOR UNINTENTIONAL DELAY

This is offered in supplement to the portion of Applicant's petition that addressed unavoidable delay.

Through correspondence and decisions, Applicant and the Office have narrowed what occurred to the Notice of Allowance. Applicant could not respond to the Notice of Allowance, because he never received it. The USPTO has Applicant's copy. As evidence, please read the paragraph beginning with the words "It should be noted..." in the decision in response to Applicant's Renewed Petition to Withdraw the Holding of Abandonment filed on November 18, 2003. Therein, it states that the Notice of Allowance was mailed to the correct address but was returned to the Office because it was undeliverable or possibly because the Notice of Allowance was inadvertently mailed back to the Office by the Minnesota Lawyer's Board. Such was determined upon evidence, in the record, that counsel then of record was hospitalized for a period of approximately six months for a series of strokes and was unable to care for his office. In either case, Applicant never received the Notice of Allowance and therefore could not respond. The delay was unavoidable.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any fees associated with this petition or otherwise with this file, including surcharges, or return overpayments to deposit account number 501143.
